

Step 1: Discover

High level goal of this course

Example: In this module the student acquires a wide range of skills to present content and information through a variety of ICT tools, including the use of multimedia.

Define the course objectives

Example: After following this course you:

- can use ICT to solve problems
- can use digital media to present information
- know which license types apply to the information and resources he/she creates or uses

Identify your audience

Example: This course is intended for adults who already have a prior knowledge of basic ICT skills and who are already able to work smoothly with the Internet.